CMM Prophetic School

Are you ready for a challenge?

CMM is starting an online prophetic school to grow, equip, and send prophets to the nations. This program will help both new and seasoned prophetic voices.

The school is designed to provide fresh and relevant prophetic training, interactive discussions, practical ministry sessions, and regular one-on-one discussions to facilitate personal growth.

The school will be divided into two levels – Prophetic Beginnings and Advanced Prophetic Training. Each level will last four months and will consist of weekly training sessions and monthly prophetic ministry opportunities. A prophetic mission trip will be scheduled during the last month of the school.

Certificates of completion will be awarded to the candidates upon successful completion of school requirements.

What will be covered?

For the Prophetic Beginnings class we will cover the purposes of prophecy, the components of prophecy, how the Lord speaks, the various modes of prophetic revelation, prophetic protocols, prophetic intentionality, contending for prophetic destiny and many more concepts.

Rev 10:11 And he said to me, "You must prophesy again before many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings."

For the Advanced Prophetic we will purposely pursue what it means to become a next level prophet. Some of the concepts we will cover will include prophetic discernment, spiritual warfare, prophetic intercession, interpretation of dreams, prophesying to nations, governments and companies, prophetic evangelism, and many other concepts.

What will you be doing?

The schools will include assigned books, homework assignments both in material covered and practical application, ministry sessions, and being asked to present prophetic material to classmates.

Prophetic School Instructor

David Bates is the Prophetic School instructor and several guest speakers will also be presenting material as part of the curriculum.
